

For paired sample design, t-test and signed rank test can be used to test for the mean of the paired differences. In this case, the one variable is the paired difference.

Y = Dependent, Outcome, or Response Variable; X = Independent variable, Explanatory variable

Y = Dependent, Outcome, or Response Variable;    X = Independent variable, Explanatory variable